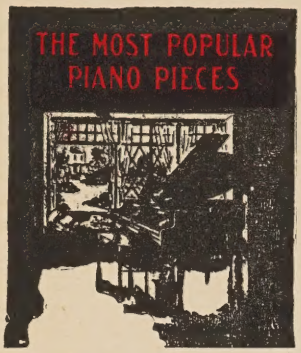
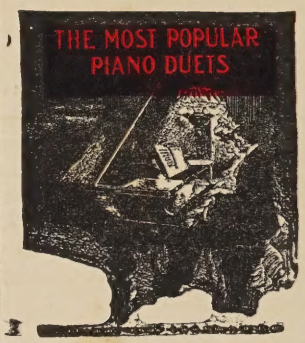
"THE MOST POPULAR" MUSIC BOOKS

Published by Hinds, Hayden & Eldredge, New York City

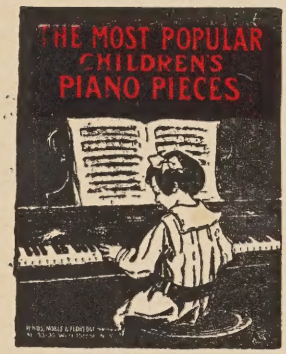
A happy inspiration seems to have guided the work of the compilers of the "Most Popular" music books. In no series of books does the choice from the great mass of material available betray such excellence of judgment and such nicety of distinction between what should be and what should not be included.



A collection of 35 standard piano pieces arranged and in some instances simplified by the famous American composer and musician George Rosey, intended especially for the use of second and third year piano students, and for the use of amateurs who wish to have good piano music which they can play without any great degree of technical ability. The contents includes a wide variety of compositions and is of such a nature as to appeal to every lover of piano music. Price, 75 cents.

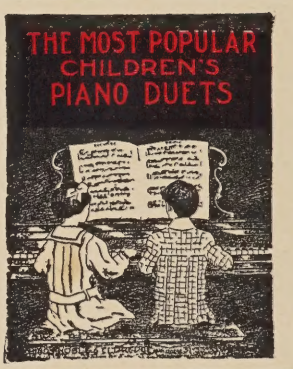


A collection of 19 piano classics arranged for four hands by the celebrated American composer and musician George Rosey. These arrangements while being in no sense of the word difficult are extremely effective and original, being different in the effect they produce upon the listener from any other published before. A wide variety has been carried out in the contents so that this folio will appeal to both lovers of semi-popular and strictly classical music. Price 75 cents.



This high-class collection of standard pieces has been especially arranged and adapted for the use of first and second grade students.

The teacher will find this book of invaluable aid in the instruction of young students, as extreme care has been used in the selection and arrangement of each composition and a glance at the contents will prove that there is not a number in the book that will not help in cultivating the appreciation of good music. Price 75 cents.

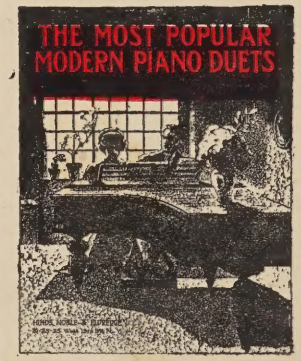


This collection of 35 world famous compositions, arranged and edited by E. R. Kroeger as easy four-hand pieces for general practice purposes and use at recitals of young pupils, admirably fulfils its mission.

The compositions are all within the first and second grades of difficulty and yet the standard of the contents list is such that every number might easily grace the programme of the world's greatest concert-pianist. Price 75 cents.

Here is a book that set about to overcome a prejudice and finds itself most strongly supported by the very class that proverbially looks askance at low-priced collections of music.

"The Most Popular Modern Piano Pieces" has found its way into the libraries of the musically educated. More than that, in satisfying the critic taste, our Modern Piano Pieces have not sacrificed in any instance the heart qualities that make the amateur love them not for any technical reason, but just because he must. Price 75 cents.

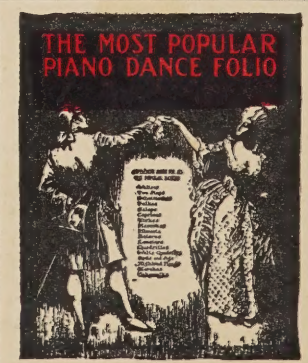


A glance at the contents list below is all that is necessary to show why this book is "Most Popular." A collection containing the greatest masterpieces of the modern world's foremost composers will assuredly be enjoyed by teachers and students.

Many of the selections have been unobtainable heretofore as four-hand numbers. The editing and arranging is the work of E. R. Kroeger, whose fame as a concert pianist and successful instructor is nation wide. Price 75 cents.

Teachers will find in this book an instructor that not only will replace the old methods by presenting the elements of music in a manner to meet the requirements of modern conditions and modern teaching methods, but in doing so will interest even the most indifferent student.

The little compositions used as exercises throughout the book is a new departure that will act as an incentive to the student by making him feel that he is progressing. Price 75 cents.

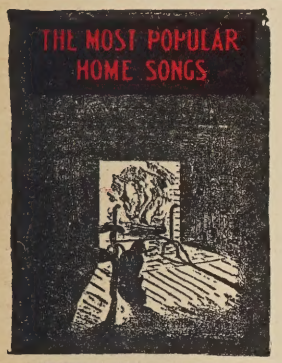


This collection will fill a niche quite of its own in musical literature as being the only folio of standard dance music which can lay claim to being complete. An even casual glance at the contents cannot fail to convince the lover of piano music in the lighter vein, that it is the ideal collection of piano dance music, including every known style of dance, in each case represented by a composition from the pen of some past master of dance music composition. Price 75 cents.

"THE MOST POPULAR" MUSIC BOOKS

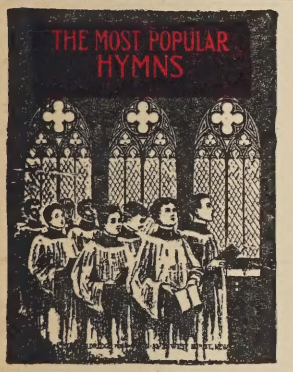
Published by Hinds, Hayden & Eldredge, New York City

A happy inspiration seems to have guided the work of the compilers of the "Most Popular" music books. In no series of books does the choice from the great mass of material available betray such excellence of judgment and such nicety of distinction between what should be and what should not be included.

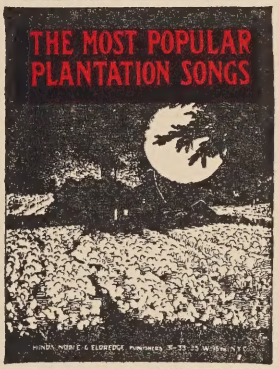


A collection containing one hundred and thirty-five of the old, familiar and favorite songs which seem to be in themselves a part of American home life. The varied contents, including songs of sacred, sentimental, humorous, pathetic and patriotic character, include every really "popular" home song, making this book one which cannot well be spared in any home where music plays a part in recreative hours. Price 50 cents.

As indicated by its title this folio consists of over eighty beautiful sentimental songs gathered from the music of all nations whose system of musical notation is identical with ours. The contents, although comprising only songs of known merit and world-wide popularity, is of an extremely varied character, including deeply sentimental songs and also compositions in lighter vein. No more ideal collection could be possibly imagined and it will in every way satisfy the lover of good vocal music. Price 50 cents.

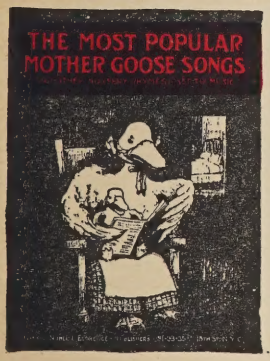


This book contains the words and music of hymns like Nearer My God to Thee, Rock of Ages, Lead Kindly Light, Almost Persuaded, I Need Thee Every Hour, In the Sweet Bye and Bye and over one hundred others that we all know. Not one of the really popular hymns has been omitted as a glance at the list of contents will show. The music is arranged so that every one can take part in the singing. No collection like this has ever been published for general use. Price 50 cents.

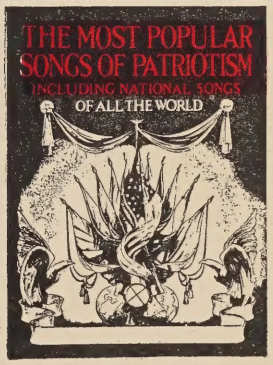


Plantation Songs—What do they mean to you? Do they recall your childhood when you enjoyed nothing more than to hear some one sing an old negro melody? Do you know why you haven't outgrown your love for these old favorites? It's because these simple melodies go straight to one's heart. They are the natural expression of tense elemental emotions.

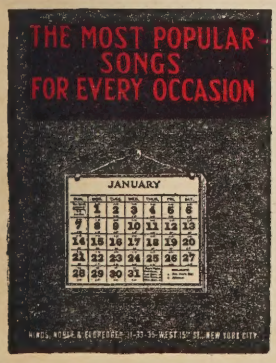
The 125 songs in this collection include Plantation, minstrel and jubilee selections and will undoubtedly prove just what you have long wanted. Price 50 cents.



No one until now has ever combined under one cover and at a low price all the dear, old Mother Goose and Nursery songs that mothers and children everywhere, both rich and poor, know and love to sing. This is the most complete collection of children's songs ever published. The music has been specially arranged to suit children's voices. Price 50 cents.

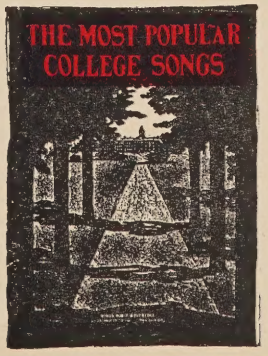


This is unquestionably the most complete collection of National and Patriotic Songs ever compiled. Besides containing every well-known and popular American patriotic song, including the new songs adopted during the past few years by the various Patriotic Organizations throughout the United States, the contents includes the national song of every other nation in the civilized world, in both the original text and the English translation. Price 50 cents.



A collection of songs for the home, the school, the club, the college, or the campus; for the children and the grown-ups, to sing at all times and all places.

New and old songs for every holiday in the year, for each month and for the four seasons; all the old and new songs that are sung at reunions, conventions, entertainments, social gatherings, devotional exercises, children's exercises, school and college exercises, including commencement and graduation exercises, are found in this book of 176 pages. Price 50 cents.



A collection of one hundred and twenty-five college songs which includes not only all the old standard favorites which are known and sung wherever college songs are used, but also many new ones which have come into vogue during the past few years. Another special feature of this collection is the addition of a supplement in the back of the book containing the typical songs of the most prominent American Universities and Colleges. Price 50 cents.

BE KIND TO THE LOVED ONES AT HOME.

Words and Music by I. B. Woodbury.

Not too fast.
1. Be kind to thy fa - ther— for, when thou wert young, Who loved thee so fond - ly as he?
2. Be kind to thy moth-er— for, lo! on her brow May trac - es of sor - row be seen;
3. Be kind to thy broth-er— his heart will have dearth If smile of thy joy be with-drawn;
4. Be kind to thy sis - ter— not ma - ny may know The depth of true sis - ter - ly love;
He caught the first ac - cent that fell from thy tongue, And joined in thy in - no - cent glee.
Oh! well may'st thou cher-ish and com - fort her now, For lov - ing and kind has she been.
The flow - ers of feel - ing will fade at their birth, If the dew of af - fec - tion be gone.
The wealth of the o - cean lies fa - thoms be - low The sur - face that spark-les a - bove.
Be kind to thy fa - ther, for now he is old; His locks in - ter- ming - led with gray;
Re - mem - ber thy moth - er, for thee will she pray, As long as God giv - eth her breath;
Be kind to thy broth - er, wher - ev - er you are, The love of a broth - er shall be
Be kind to thy fa - ther, once fear - less and bold; Be kind to thy moth - er so dear;
His foot - steps are fee - ble, once fear - less and bold; Thy fa - ther is pass - ing a - way.
With ac - cents of kind-ness then cheer her lone way, E'en to the dark val - ley of death.
An or - na - ment pur - er and rich - er by far Than pearls from the depths of the sea.
Be kind to thy broth - er nor show thy heart cold; Be kind to thy sis - ter so dear.

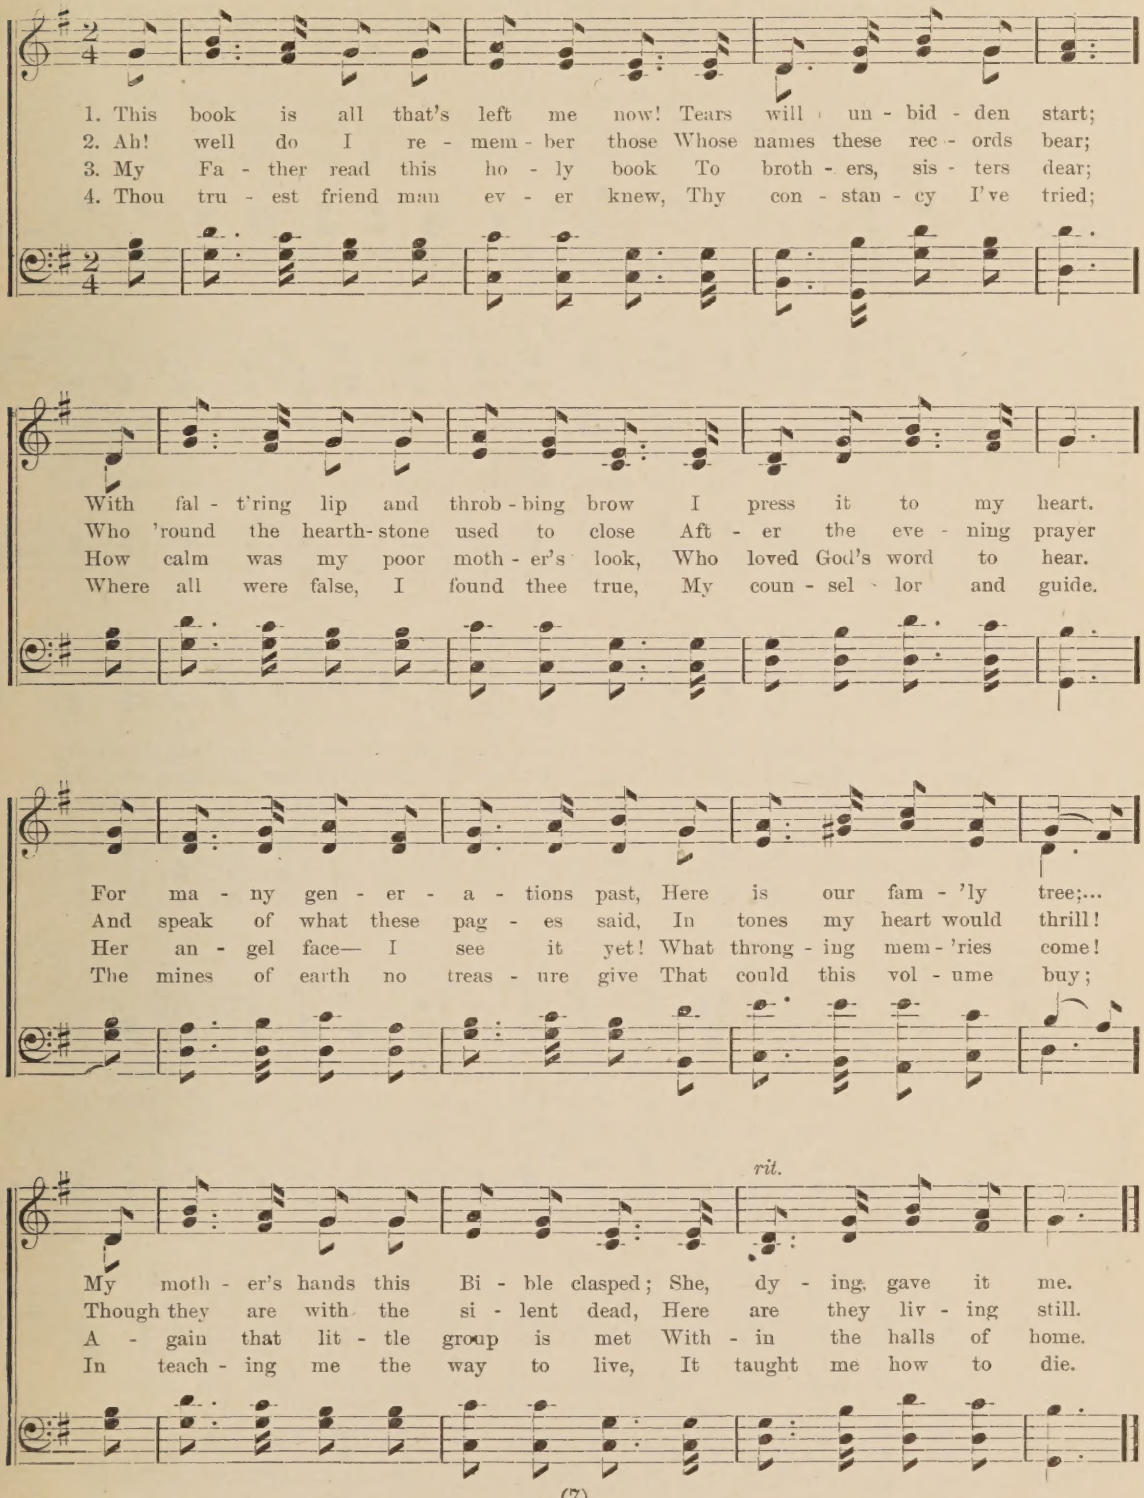
MY MOTHER'S BIBLE.

Words by George P. Morris. Music by Henry Russell.



1. This book is all that's left me now! Tears will un - bid - den start;
With fal - t'ring lip and throb - bing brow I press it to my heart.
For ma - ny gen - er - a - tions past, Here is our fam - 'ly tree;...
My moth - er's hands this Bi - ble clasped; She, dy - ing, gave it me.
2. Ah! well do I re - mem - ber those Whose names these rec - ords bear;
Who 'round the hearth-stone used to close Aft - er the eve - ning prayer
And speak of what these pag - es said, In tones my heart would thrill!
Though they are with the si - lent dead, Here are they liv - ing still.
3. My Fa - ther read this ho - ly book To broth - ers, sis - ters dear;
How calm was my poor moth - er's look, Who loved God's word to hear.
Her an - gel face— I see it yet! What throng - ing mem - 'ries come!
A - gain that lit - tle group is met With - in the halls of home.
4. Thou tru - est friend man ev - er knew, Thy con - stan - cy I've tried;
Where all were false, I found thee true, My coun - sel - lor and guide.
The mines of earth no treas - ure give That could this vol - ume buy;
In teach - ing me the way to live, It taught me how to die.

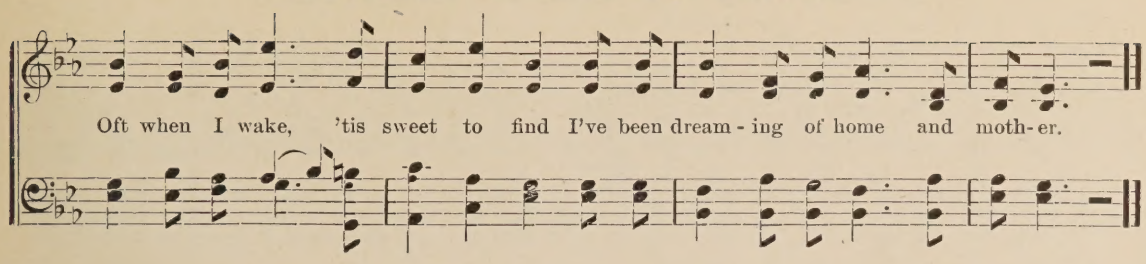
DREAMING OF HOME AND MOTHER.

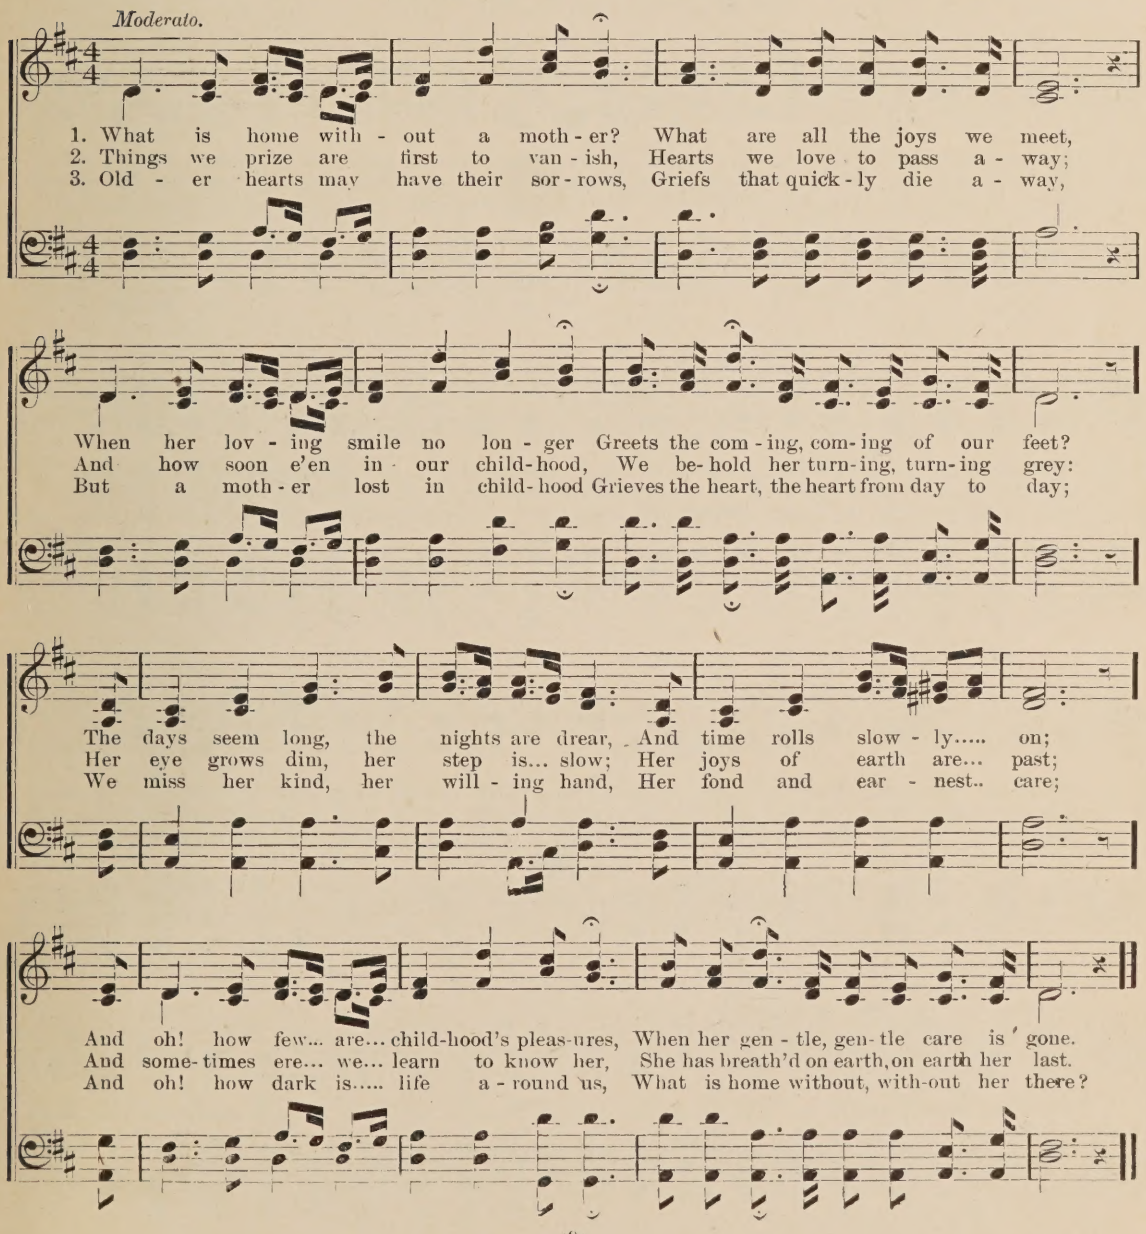
Words and Music by J. P. Ordway, M. D.

1. Dream - ing of home, dear old home! Home of my child - hood and moth - er;
2. Sleep, balm - y sleep, close mine eyes, Keep me still think - ing of moth - er,
3. Child - hood has come, come a - gain, Sleep - ing I see my dear moth - er;
Oft when I wake, 'tis sweet to find I've been dream - ing of home and moth - er.
Hark! 'tis her voice I seem to hear, Yes, I'm dream - ing of home and moth - er.
See her loved form be - side me kneel, While I'm dream - ing of home and moth - er.
Home, dear home, childhood's hap - py home! Where I played with sis - ter and with broth - er;
An - gels come, sooth-ing me to rest, I can feel their pres - ence as none oth - er;
Moth - er dear, whis - per to me now, Tell me of my sis - ter and my broth - er;
'Twas the sweet - est joy when we did roam, O - ver hill and thro' dale with moth - er.
For they sweet - ly say I shall be blest With bright vis - ions of home and moth - er.
Now I feel thy hand up - on my brow, Yes, I'm dream - ing of home and moth - er.
CHORUS.
Dream - ing of home, dear old Home, Home of my child - hood and moth - er,

DREAMING OF HOME AND MOTHER.



WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A MOTHER?



Moderato.
1. What is home with - out a moth - er? What are all the joys we meet,
2. Things we prize are first to van - ish, Hearts we love to pass a - way;
3. Old - er hearts may have their sor - rows, Griefs that quick - ly die a - way,
When her lov - ing smile no lon - ger Greets the com - ing, com - ing of our feet?
And how soon e'en in our child - hood, We be - hold her turn - ing, turn - ing grey:
But a moth - er lost in child - hood Grieves the heart, the heart from day to day;
The days seem long, the nights are drear, And time rolls slow - ly..... on;
Her eye grows dim, her step is... slow; Her joys of earth are... past;
We miss her kind, her will - ing hand, Her fond and ear - nest.. care;
And oh! how few... are... child - hood's pleas - ures, When her gen - tle, gen - tle care is gone.
And some - times ere... we... learn to know her, She has breath'd on earth, on earth her last.
And oh! how dark is..... life a - round us, What is home without, with - out her there?

ROCK ME TO SLEEP, MOTHER.

Words by Florence Percy. Music by Ernest Leslie.

With moderate motion and with expression.

1. Back-ward, turn back-ward, oh, time, in your flight, Make me a child a-gain just for to-night!
2. O - ver my heart, in the days that are flown, No love like moth-er-love ev - er has shown,
3. Come, let your brown hair, just light-ed with gold, Fall on my shoul-ders a - gain as of old,

Moth-er, come back from the ech - o - less shore, Take me a - gain to your heart as of yore;
No oth - er wor-ship a - bides and en - dures, Faith-ful, un - self - ish, and pa-tient like yours;
Let it drop o - ver my fore-head to - night, Shad-ing my faint eyes a - way from the light;

Kiss from my fore-head the fur-rows of care, Smooth the few sil - ver threads out of my hair,
None like a moth-er can charm a - way pain, From the sick soul and the world wea-ry brain,
For with its sun - ny-edged shadows once more, Hap - ly will throng the sweet vis-ions of yore,

O - ver my slum-bers your lov - ing watch keep; Rock me to sleep, moth-er, rock me to sleep.
Slumber's soft calm o'er my heav - y lids creep; Rock me to sleep, moth-er, rock me to sleep.
Lov - ing - ly, soft - ly, its bright bil-lows sweep; Rock me to sleep, moth-er, rock me to sleep.

CHORUS.

Clasped to your heart in a lov - ing em-brace, With your light lash - es just sweep - ing my face,

ROCK ME TO SLEEP, MOTHER.

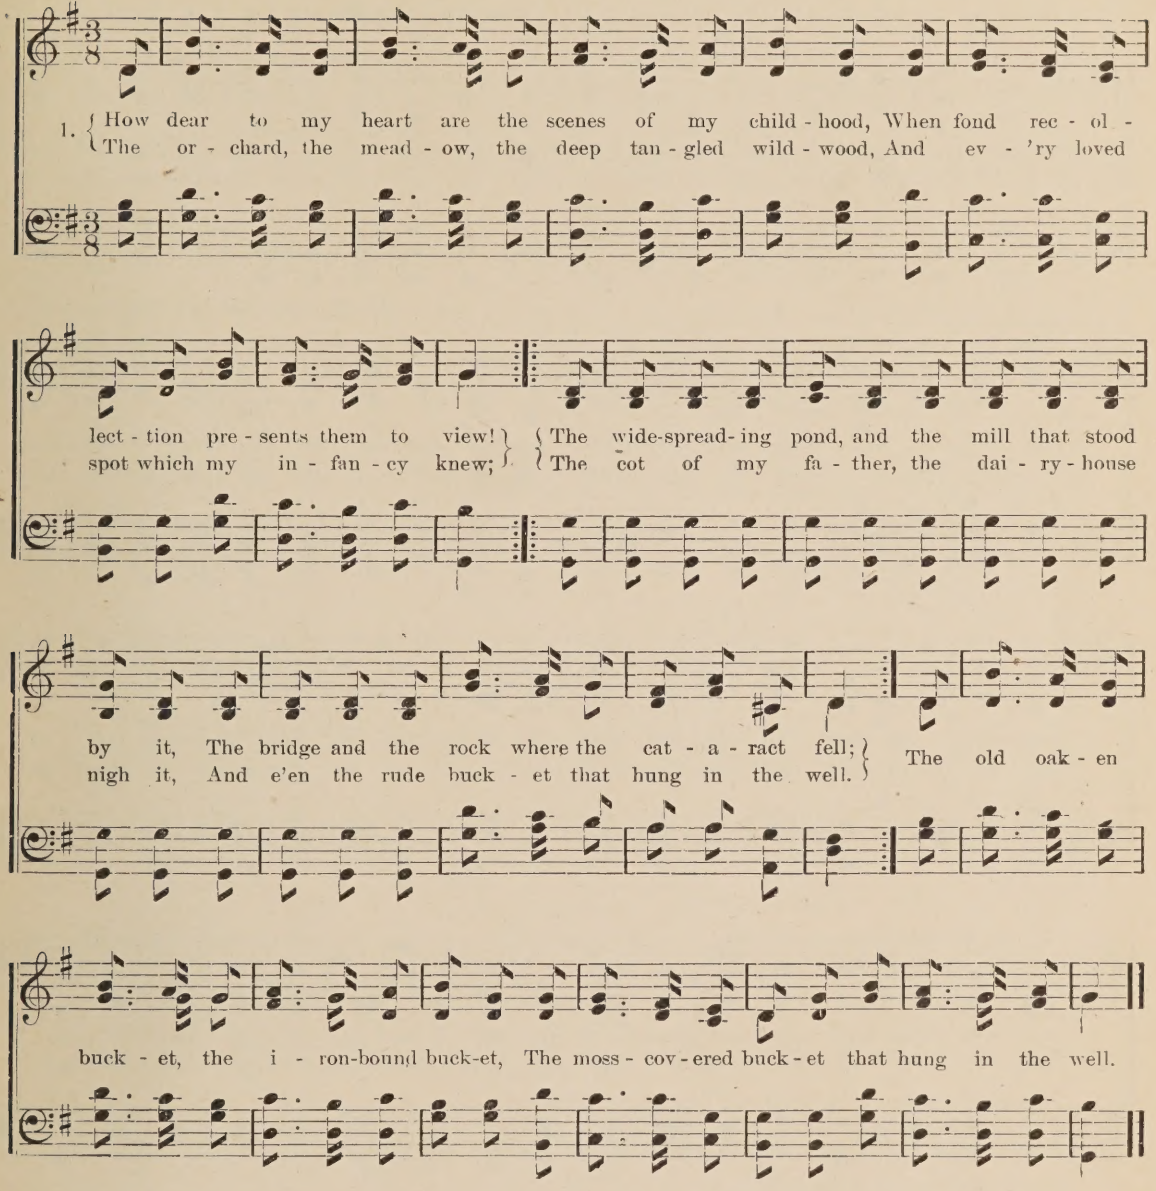
THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET.

Samuel Woodworth.



1. How dear to my heart are the scenes of my child - hood, When fond rec - ol -
The or - chard, the mead - ow, the deep tan - gled wild - wood, And ev - 'ry loved lect - tion pre - sents them to view! The wide-spread- ing pond, and the mill that stood spot which my in - fan - cy knew; The cot of my fa - ther, the dai - ry - house by it, The bridge and the rock where the cat - a - ract fell;
nigh it, And e'en the rude buck - et that hung in the well.
The old oak - en
buck - et, the i - ron-bound buck-et, The moss - cov - ered buck - et that hung in the well.

2 The moss-covered bucket I hailed as a treasure,
For often at noon, when returned from the field,
I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
The purest and sweetest that nature can yield.
How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing
And quick to the white-pebbled bottom it fell,
Then soon, with the emblem of truth overflowing
And dripping with coolness, it rose from the well.
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket arose from the well.

3 How sweet from the green, mossy brim to receive it,
As, poised on the curb, it inclined to my lips!
Not a full-blushing goblet could tempt me to leave it,
Tho' filled with the nectar that Jupiter sips.
And now, far removed from the loved habitation,
The tear of regret will intrusively swell,
As fancy reverts to my father's plantation
And sighs for the bucket that hung in the well.
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket which hangs in the well.

Build it up with i - ron bars, My fair la - dy.
I - ron bars will bend and break, My fair la - dy.
Build it up with gold and silver, My fair la - dy.

Directions.—Two children make the bridge by raising their arms so as to form an arch: the others form in line, each one holding on to the one in front, and pass under the arch: at the words, "My Fair Lady" the two who form the bridge let their arms fall, catching whichever child happens to be passing. He is then asked "Which do you prefer, gold or silver?" and he is sent behind one or the other of the bridge-makers, according to his choice, they having privately agreed which will stand for silver and which for gold. After all have chosen, the game ends with a tug-of-war between the two sides.

THE BRIDGE.

Words by H. W. Longfellow. Music by M. Lindsay.

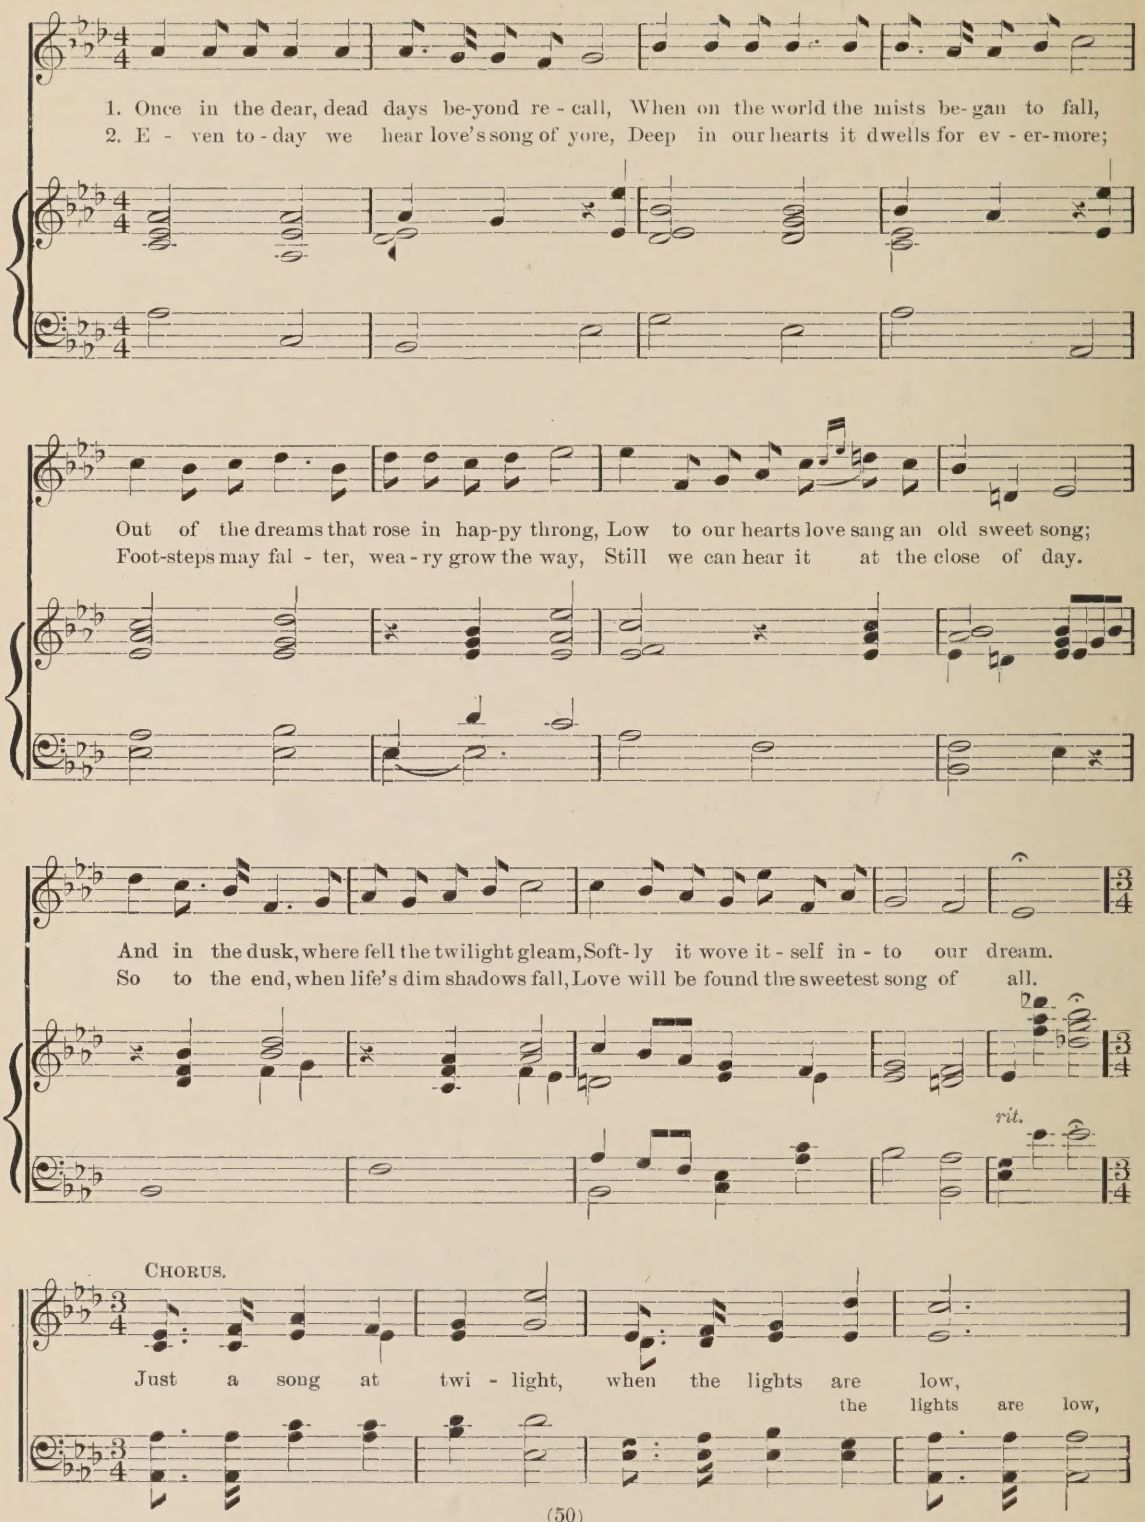
With expression.

1. I..... stood on the bridge at mid-night, As the clocks were strik-ing the hour,
2. For my heart... was hot and rest-less, And my life was full of..... care,
And the moon rose o'er the cit-y, Be-hind..... the dark church tow'r,
And the bur-den laid up-on me Seemed great-er than I could bear.
And, like..... the wa-ters rush-ing A-mong the wood-en piers,.....
But now it has fall-en from me, It is bur-ied in the sea.....
A flood of..... thoughts come o'er..... me, That filled my eyes with tears....
And on-ly the sor-row of oth-ers Throws its shad-ow o-ver me; Yet
How oft-en,..... oh! how oft-en, In the days that had gone by,
when-ev-er I cross the riv-er, On its bridge with wood-en piers,

I had stood on that bridge at mid - night, And... gazed on that wave and sky!
Like the o - dor of brine from the o - cean Comes the thought of..... oth - er years,
How..... oft - en, oh! how oft - en, In the days..... that had gone by,
And for - ev - er, and for - ev - er, As..... long as the riv - er flows,
I had stood on the bridge at mid - night, And gazed on that wave and sky!
As..... long as the heart has pas - sions, As long..... as life has woes,
How oft - en,..... oh!..... how oft - en, I had wished that the ebb - ing tide
The moon and its bro - ken re - flec - tion, And its shad - ows... shall ap - pear
Would bear me a - way on its bos - om, O'er the o - cean wild... and wide!
As the sym - bol of love... in heav - en, And its wav - er - ing im - age here.

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG.

Words by G. F. Brigham. Music by J. L. Molloy.



1. Once in the dear, dead days be-yond re - call, When on the world the mists be-gan to fall,
2. E - ven to-day we hear love's song of yore, Deep in our hearts it dwells for ev - er-more;
Out of the dreams that rose in hap-py throng, Low to our hearts love sang an old sweet song;
Foot-steps may fal - ter, wea - ry grow the way, Still we can hear it at the close of day.
And in the dusk, where fell the twilight gleam, Soft-ly it wove it - self in - to our dream.
So to the end, when life's dim shadows fall, Love will be found the sweetest song of all.
rit.
CHORUS.
Just a song at twi - light, when the lights are low,
the lights are low,

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG.

And the flick - 'ring shad - ows soft - ly come and go,
soft - ly go,
Though the heart be wea - ry, sad the day, and long, Still to us at the day is long,
twi - light, comes love's old song, Comes love's old sweet..... song.....

That thrills with its mystic meaning
And powerful melody.

3. It seizes with wildest yearning
The boatman, entranc'd in his skiff;
He sees not the treacherous breakers,
He gazes alone on the cliff.
And soon will the waves engulf them,
Both boat and boatman strong,
For thus in her toils hath she bound them
The Lorely with her song.

ROCKED IN THE CRADLE OF THE DEEP.

Words by Willard. Music by Knight.

1. Rock'd in the cra - dle of the deep,... I lay me down... in peace to sleep;
2. And such the trust that still were mine,... Tho' storm - y winds.. sweep o'er the brine,
Se - cure I rest up - on the wave, For Thou, O Lord, hast pow'r to save.
Or though the tem-pest's fier - y breath Rous'd me from sleep to wreck and death,
I know Thou wilt not slight my call, For Thou dost mark the spar - row's fall!
In o - cean's wave still safe with Thee, The germ of im - mor - tal - i - ty;
And calm and peace-ful is my sleep,..... Rock'd in the cra - dle of the deep,

Chorus.
There were three crows sat on a tree, O Bil - ly Ma - gee Ma - gar!
Said one old crow un - to his mate, O Bil - ly Ma - gee Ma - gar!
Bil - ly Ma - gee!
There were three crows sat on a tree, And they were black as crows could be,
Said one old crow un - to his mate, "What shall we do for grub to ate?"
And they all flapped their wings and cried— Caw, Caw, Caw, Bil - ly Ma - gee Ma - gar!
And they all flapped their wings and cried Bil - ly Ma - gee Ma - gar!

3. "There lies a horse on yonder plain,
Who's by some cruel butcher slain,"
And they all flapped their wings, etc.

*4. "We'll perch ourselves on his backbone,
And pick his eyes out one by one."
And they all flapped their wings, etc.

* Omit the last measure in this verse.

6. And every time they fired it off,
   It took a horn of powder;
   It made a noise like father's gun,
   Only a nation louder.

7. And there I see a little keg,
   Its head all made of leather,
   They knocked upon't with little sticks,
   To call the folks together.

8. And Cap'n David had a gun,
   He kind o' clapt his hand on't

WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS.

Words by Joseph Scriven. Music by C. Crozat Converse.

1. What a friend we have in Je - sus, All our sins and griefs to bear;
2. Have we tri - als and temp - ta - tions? Is there troub - le a - ny-where?
3. Are we weak and heav - y - la - den, Cum - bered with a load of care?
What a priv - i - lege to car - ry Ev - 'ry - thing to God in prayer.
We should nev - er be dis - cour - aged, Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Pre - cious Sav - iour still our ref - uge,— Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Oh, what peace we oft - en for - feit, Oh, what need - less pain we bear—
Can we find a Friend so faith - ful, Who will all our sor - rows share?
Do thy friends de - spise, for - sake thee? Take it to the Lord in prayer;
All be - cause we do not car - ry Ev - 'ry - thing to God in prayer.
Je - sus knows our ev - 'ry weak - ness, Take it to the Lord in prayer.
In His arms He'll take and shield thee, Thou wilt find a sol - ace there.

JERUSALEM, THE GOLDEN.

Words by Bernard of Cluny. Music by Alex. Ewing.

1. Je - ru - sa - lem, the gold - en, With milk and hón - ey blest,
2. They stand, those halls of Zi - on, All ju - bi - lant with song,
3. There is the throne of Da - vid, And there, from care re - leased,
4. O sweet and bless - ed coun - try, The home of God's e - lect!
Be - neath thy con - tem - pla - tion Sink heart and voice op - prest.
And bright with many an an - gel, And all the mar - tyr throng.
The song of them that tri - umph, The shout of them that feast;
O sweet and bless - ed coun - try, That ea - ger hearts ex - pect!
I know not, oh, I know not, What joys a - wait us there,
The Prince is ev - er in them, The day - light is se - rene;
And they who with their Lead - er Have con - quered in the fight,
Je - sus, in mer - cy bring us To that dear land of rest,
What ra - dian - cy of glo - ry, What bliss be - yond com - pare.
The pas - tures of the bless - ed Are decked in glo - rious sheen.
For - ev - er and for - ev - er Are clad in robes of white.

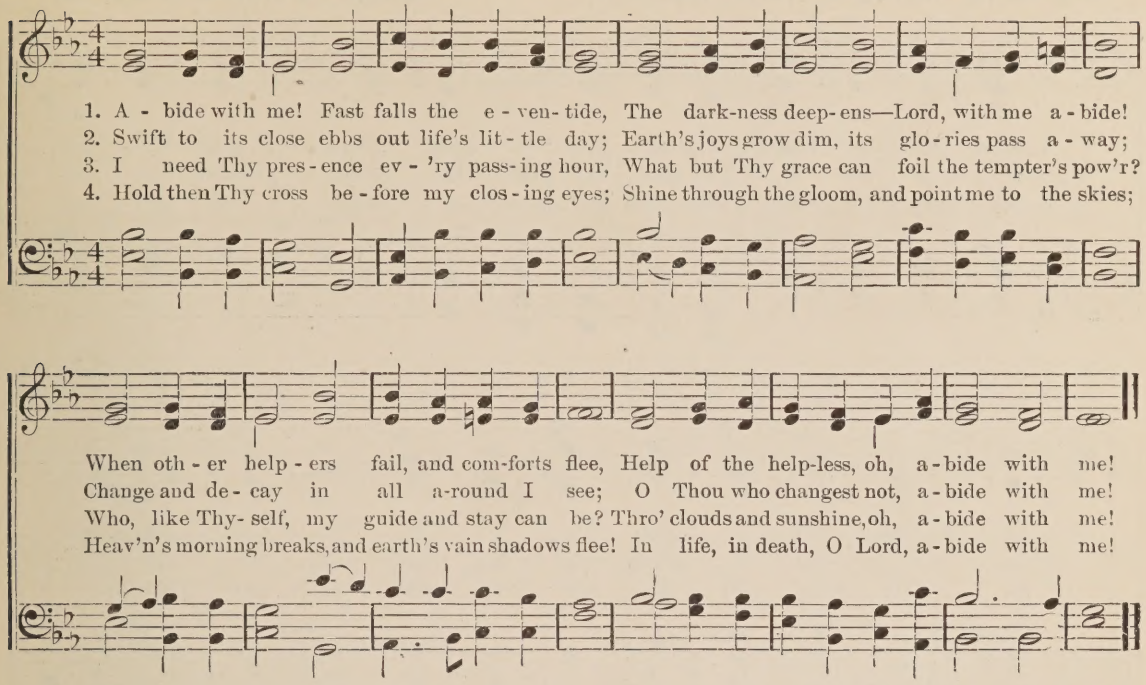
ABIDE WITH ME.

Words by Henry Francis Lyte. Music by William Henry Monk.



1. A - bide with me! Fast falls the e - ven-tide, The dark-ness deep-ens—Lord, with me a - bide!
2. Swift to its close ebbs out life's lit - tle day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glo - ries pass a - way;
3. I need Thy pres - ence ev - 'ry pass-ing hour, What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's pow'r?
4. Hold then Thy cross be - fore my clos - ing eyes; Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
When oth - er help - ers fail, and com-forts flee, Help of the help-less, oh, a - bide with me!
Change and de - cay in all a-round I see; O Thou who changest not, a - bide with me!
Who, like Thy- self, my guide and stay can be? Thro' clouds and sunshine, oh, a - bide with me!
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee! In life, in death, O Lord, a - bide with me!

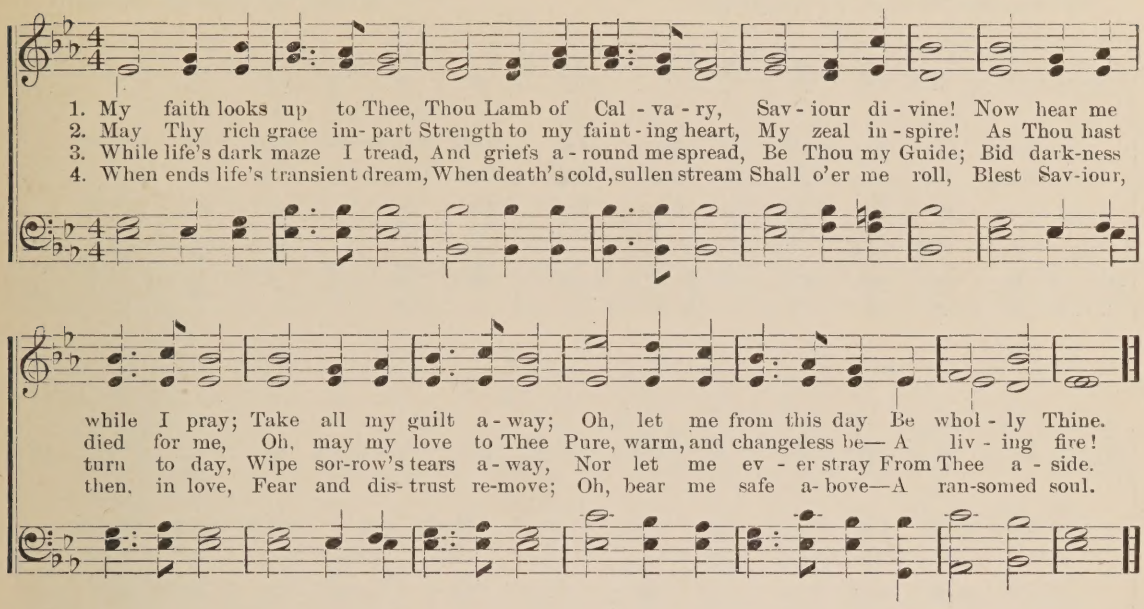
MY FAITH LOOKS UP TO THEE.

Words by Rev. Ray Palmer. Music by Lowell Mason.



1. My faith looks up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Cal - va - ry, Sav - iour di - vine! Now hear me while I pray; Take all my guilt a - way; Oh, let me from this day Be whol - ly Thine.
2. May Thy rich grace im- part Strength to my faint - ing heart, My zeal in - spire! As Thou hast died for me, Oh, may my love to Thee Pure, warm, and changeless be— A liv - ing fire!
3. While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs a - round me spread, Be Thou my Guide; Bid dark-ness turn to day, Wipe sor-row's tears a - way, Nor let me ev - er stray From Thee a - side.
4. When ends life's transient dream, When death's cold, sullen stream Shall o'er me roll, Blest Sav-iour, then, in love, Fear and dis- trust re-move; Oh, bear me safe a- bove—A ran-somed soul.

SOFTLY NOW THE LIGHT OF DAY.

Words by George W. Doane. Arranged from Carl Maria von Weber.

1. Soft - ly now the light of day Fades up - on my sight a - way;
2. Thou, whose all - per - vad - ing eye Naught es - capes, with - out, with - in,
3. Soon for me the light of day Shall for - ev - er pass a - way:
4. Thou who, sin - less, yet hast known All of man's in - firm - i - ty;
Free from care, from la - bor free, Lord, I would com - mune with Thee.
Par - don each in - firm - i - ty, O - pen fault and se - cret sin.
Then, from sin and sor - row free, Take me, Lord, to dwell with Thee.
Then, from Thine e - ter - nal throne, Je - sus, look with pit - ying eye.

March on, march on, all hearts resolved
On liberty or death!

3. O Liberty! can man resign thee?
Once having felt thy generous flame,
Can dungeon bolts and bars confine thee,
Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
Too long the world has wept, bewailing
The blood-stained sword our conq'rors wield;
But freedom is our sword and shield,
And all their arts are unavailing!
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
Th'avenging sword unsheath!
March on, march on, all hearts resolved
On liberty or death!

2. Tremblez, tyrants! et vous perfides,
L'opprobre de tous les partis,
Tremblez! vos projets parricides
Vont enfin recevoir leur prix!
Vont enfin recevoir leur prix!
Tout est soldat pour vous combattre.
S'ils tombent, nos jeunes héros.
La France en produit, de nouveaux,
Contre vous tout prêts à se battre!
Aux armes, citoyens!
Formez vos bataillons!
Marchons, marchons! qu'un sang impur
Abreuve nos sillons!

3. Nous entrerons dans la carrière
Quand nos aînés n'y seront plus;
Nous y trouverons leur poussière
Et la trace de leurs vertus,
Et la trace de leurs vertus,
Bien moins jaloux de leur survivre
Que de partager leur cercueil,
Nous aurons le sublime orgueil,
De les venger ou de les suivre!
Aux armes, citoyens!
Formez vos bataillons!
Marchons, marchons! qu'un sang impur
Abreuve nos sillons!

2. To break the chains of bondage
Our honor we have plighted;
And hands and hearts united
To set our brothers free!
If Fate should have ordained
That we must perish,
One thought we will cherish:
We die for liberty!—CHO.

3. The cannon's mouth is roaring,
The coward's heart confounding,
The bugler's horn is sounding
In clear, inspiring tones.
The nation, when in anger,
By gross insult provoked,
The genius invoked
Of her beloved songs.—CHO.

Del libre, del bravo
La faz no osa ver.
Sus huestes cual humo
Vereis dissipadas
Y a nuestras espadas
Fugaces correr.—CHO.

3. La trompa guerrera
Sus ecos da al viento
De horrores sediento
Y a muge el cannon
Ya marte sannudo
La audacia provoca,
Y el genio se invoca
De nuestra nacion.—CHO.

3. For us were our dwellings Italian erected!
Return to your own by the Danube protected!
You've stolen our bread, our fields you have ravag'd,
Our sons now shall fight 'neath their own country's flag!
Our border the Alps and the two seas, regaining,
With fire and with sword them we'll e'er be maintaining,
The olden frontiers shall be swept from remembrance!
And one flag our country united shall greet!
Ye aliens, abandon our home-land Italian!
The hour is at hand, shake its dust from your feet.

4. A truce then to speeches, let arms speak the louder.
And face to the foe, let us argue with powder!
The Austrian will flinch, he will turn from us fleeing,
The thought of our country aglow in our hearts!
We dream not of spoils nor of barbarous plunder;
Dissention and jealousy ne'er shall us sunder,
Italians shall all form one nation together,
Her towns fam'd and many, in union shall meet!
Ye aliens, abandon our home-land Italian!
The hour is at hand, shake its dust from your feet!

3. Le case d'Italia son fatte per noi,
E la sul Danubio la casa de tuoi,
Tu i campi ci guasti, tu il pane e' involi
I nostri figliuoli per noi li vogliam.
Son l'Alpi e i due mari d'Italia i confini,
Col carro di fuoco rompiam gli Appennini
Distrutto ogni sogno di vecchia frontiera,
La nostra bandiera per tutto innalziam.
Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori ch'e l'ora,
Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori o stranier.

4. Sien mute le lingue, sien pronte le bracia;
Soltanto al nemico vogliamo la faccia,
E tosto oltre i momenti, n'andrà lo straniero
Se tutto un pensiero l'Italia sarà.
Non basta il trionfo di barbare spoglie,
Si chiudan ai ladri d'Italia le soglie
Le genti d'Italia son tutte una sola,
Son tutte una sola le cento città.
Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori ch'e l'ora.
Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori o stranier

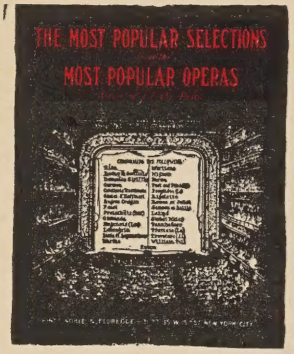
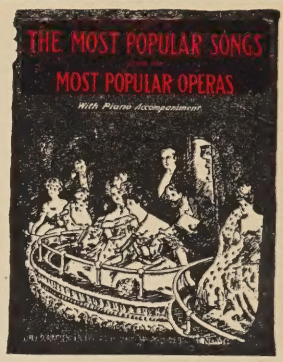
"THE MOST POPULAR" MUSIC BOOKS

Published by Hinds, Hayden & Eldredge, New York City

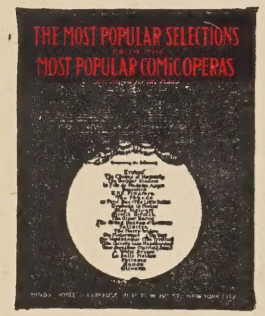
A happy inspiration seems to have guided the work of the compilers of the "Most Popular" music books. In no series of books does the choice from the great mass of material available betray such excellence of judgment and such nicety of distinction between what should be and what should not be included.



This collection will appeal most to lovers of gems from the operas through the fact that it is complete in every respect, and includes all the favorite standard operas. The melodies selected are the ones with which everybody is familiar and the arrangements and modern fingering are special features which will appeal to the intelligent lover of the piano. Price 75 cents.

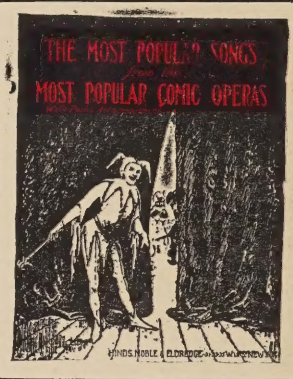


This collection, containing 24 arias from as many of the Standard Operas that are universally popular, is undoubtedly without a peer in the realm of Operatic Music. Each song has been especially arranged for medium voice, with piano accompaniment, and simplified so that it is within the reach of every singer of average ability. At the same time the beauty and force of the melody has been retained intact. The words are in English as well as in the original text. Price 75 cts.



Without exception, the most complete collection of the most popular selections from the best-known comic operas ever published. The book contains several selections from each opera—in every case the most popular ones.

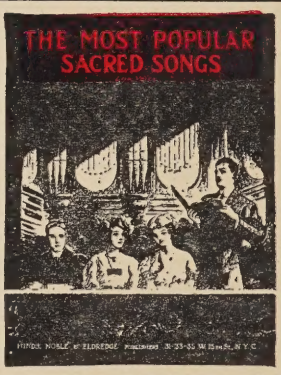
All have been especially arranged for the piano by the celebrated pianist Paolo Gallico. This is the companion volume to the "Most Popular Selections from the Most Popular Operas" which has had a tremendous sale. Price 75 cents.



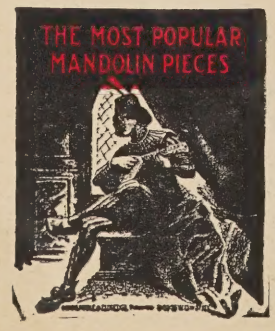
In this collection will be found the best song from each of the 28 most popular light operas. Care has been taken to select only the well-known operas and the choicest aria from each.

Each aria has been especially arranged for medium voice and the piano accompaniment simplified by Paolo Gallico so that it is within the range of the average player. As in The Most Popular Songs from the Grand Operas, Mr. Gallico has succeeded in bringing these arias within the reach of the average singer without lessening their effectiveness as solos. Price 75 cents.

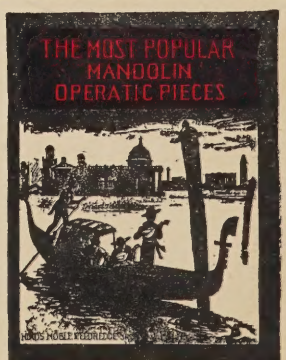
Made to satisfy that large class of singers whose musical tastes do not run to ragtime or the common variety of the popular song, but who, because of their moderate ability, cannot compass the more difficult songs of a higher musical standard. Arranged by William B. Olds, A. B., Professor of the Art of Singing and Theory of Music at the Milliken Conservatory, for Low Voice (Alto or Baritone Solos) and for High Voice (Tenor or Soprano Solos) with Piano Acc. The songs are all written in easy keys and are within the range of the average amateur's voice. Price 75c.



A collection of 24 of the world's best Sacred Songs edited and arranged by E. J. Biedermann with the express purpose in mind of giving those singers whose technical knowledge is not great, an opportunity of rendering effectively these wonderfully brilliant Sacred Solos. Published in two volumes, for High Voice (Tenor or Soprano Solo) and Low Voice (Alto or Baritone Solo). The accompaniment is equally suitable for either piano or organ. Price each volume, 75 cts.



A collection which cannot fail to call forth unqualified approval from players of the Mandolin because it is the first attempt on the part of any publisher to give Mandolinists a collection of standard music carefully arranged and adapted to the Mandolin. The arrangements are ideal, in that, they are strictly in the 1st position and therefore within the grasp of every amateur. Prices, 1st Mandolin 40 cents; 2nd Mandolin 40 cents; Guitar Accom. 40 cents; Piano Accom. 50 cents.

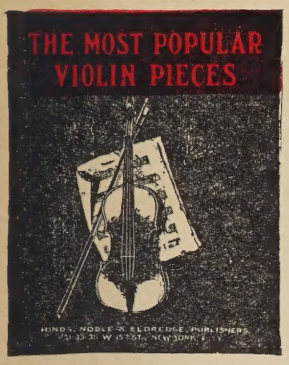


This is without doubt the most complete and carefully selected collection of operatic numbers ever published for the Mandolin family. The book contains 43 selections, each one peculiarly adaptable for Mandolin and arranged in the 1st position. Price, 1st Mandolin 40 cents; 2nd Mandolin 40 cents; Guitar Acc. 40 cents; Piano Acc. 40 cents; Tenor Mandola 40 cents; Mando-Cello 40 cents; Piccola-Mando 40 cents; Mando-Bass 40 cents; Harp 50 cents; Cello Obligato 40 cents; Flute Obligato 40c.

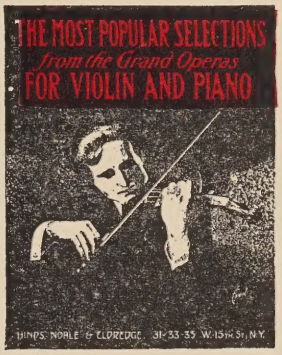
"THE MOST POPULAR" MUSIC BOOKS

Published by Hinds, Hayden & Eldredge, New York City

A happy inspiration seems to have guided the work of the compilers of the "Most Popular" music books. In no series of books does the choice from the great mass of material available betray such excellence of judgment and such nicety of distinction between what should be and what should not be included.

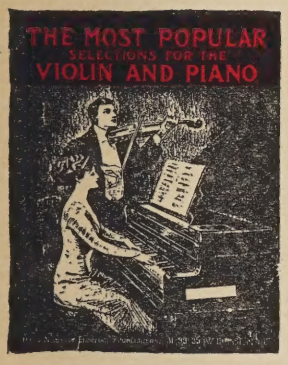


This is a collection of 29 pieces for Violin, selected from numbers which are regarded by violin teachers and students as being universally popular. While it is an admirable solo collection for any violinist, it has been made specially inviting to those whose musical attainments are moderate, by the fact that the violin part is written entirely in the 1st position. The entire collection is carefully bowed and fingered. Violin with Piano Accom. 75c. Violin, Cello and Piano $1.00. Violin, Flute and Piano, $1.00. Violin, Flute, Cello and Piano, $1.25.

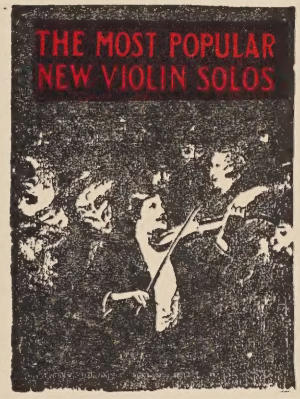


The 43 selections from the 24 standard operas contained in this collection have been culled from the world's masterpieces of grand and light opera, and every selection is particularly suited to the violin. What will appeal most strongly to the amateur, however, is the fact that every number is arranged in the 1st position.

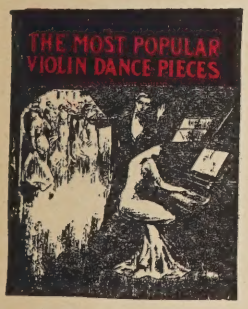
Price, Violin with Piano Accompaniment, 75c.; Violin, Cello and Piano, $1.00; Violin, Flute and Piano, $1.00; Violin, Flute, Cello and Piano, $1.25.



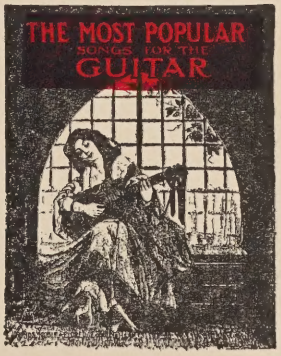
Arranged by Eugene Gruenberg in two volumes. The numbers are carefully graded, Volume II being slightly more difficult than Vol. I. Mr. Gruenberg has expended, perhaps, more time and pains in arranging, editing and revising the numbers in these two collections to meet the requirements of the beginner and the slightly advanced player (the numbers are limited in difficulty to the first five positions) than has ever been given to any similar work. Price, Violin with Piano Accompaniment, 75 cents. Violin, Cello and Piano, $1.00. Violin, Flute and Piano, $1.00. Violin, Flute, Cello and Piano, $1.25.



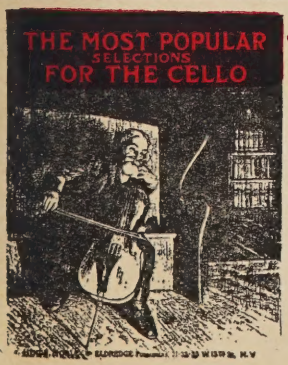
The 17 pieces in this book are mainly arrangements of famous piano compositions by celebrated composers, although there are three entirely new and original compositions contained in same. Both the Violin and Piano parts are moderately difficult, but will be found within the range of every advanced player. Violin with Piano Accompaniment, 75 cents. Violin, Cello and Piano, $1.00. Violin, Cello, Flute and Piano, $1.25.



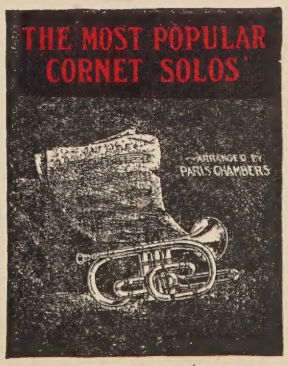
This is without doubt the first high-grade collection of standard dances of this nature ever published for Violin and Piano, and will undoubtedly be much appreciated by violinists, not only because of the superiority of its contents but also because every number has been especially arranged and placed in the first position so that it is within the grasp of the average player. Price, Violin and Piano, 75 cents. Violin, Cello and Piano, $1.00. Violin, Flute and Piano, $1.00. Violin, Cello, Flute and Piano, $1.25.



The "Most Popular Songs for the Guitar" contains about 125 of the old familiar songs—Plantation, Patriotic, Sentimental, Humorous, and Sacred—that everybody knows and everybody loves. They are arranged with an easy guitar accompaniment that even the mediocre players can carry. Price, 75 cents.



This splendid collection of 31 high-class compositions from the pens of the world's foremost composers, while especially arranged and adapted to meet the requirements of the amateur cellist, will prove equally welcome to the professional artist; because a glance at the contents will prove that there is not a number in the book that will not call forth an encore when played as a Cello Solo, either with or without the accompaniment of the piano. Price, Cello and Piano, 75 cents.



This is a collection of twenty-eight beautiful compositions, especially adapted and arranged for cornet solo with piano accompaniment by W. Paris Chambers. The very fact that Mr. Chambers, famous as a virtuoso and musician, has arranged the selections will be a sufficient guarantee to any cornetist of the excellence and practical usefulness of this book. Particular attention is drawn to the infinitely great variety of the contents, making the collection one that will be useful on every occasion. Price, (Cornet with Piano Accom.) 75 cents.
